

"Let the earth bring forth the living creature according to its kind..."

GENESIS 1:24, 25

LEARNING  LIVING

LESSONS FROM

 ANIMALS

Lessons I've Learned From My Animal

1. Contentment with the people I love is better than all the glitter of the world – Prov. 30:7-9; 15:17 | Heb. 13:5, 6
2. Don't expect a lot from others and learn to wait
– Psa. 104:17-27 | Job 14:14 | Micah 7:7
3. The inherent value of discipline, obedience, submission, humility
– Prov. 29:15; 30:11, 12, 17, 21-23

A person is walking away from the viewer on a dirt path that leads towards a bright, glowing light on the horizon. The scene is set in a vast, open field with rolling hills in the distance. The sky is a mix of soft, hazy colors, suggesting a sunrise or sunset. Several birds are seen flying in the upper left portion of the sky. The overall mood is contemplative and hopeful.

18 There are three things which are too wonderful for me, Yes, four which I do not understand:
19 The way of an eagle in the air, The way of a serpent on a rock, The way of a ship in the midst of the sea, And the way of a man with a virgin.

PROVERBS 30

"When You Begin To Think How Big You Have Become On Earth, Look Up Into The Heavens
And Perceive How Small You Really Are."

29 There are three things which are majestic in pace, Yes, four which are stately in walk:

30 A lion, which is mighty among beasts And does not turn away from any;

31 A greyhound, A male goat also, And a king whose troops are with him.

32 If you have been foolish in exalting yourself, Or if you have devised evil, put your hand on your mouth.

33 For as the churning of milk produces butter, And wringing the nose produces blood, So the forcing of wrath produces strife.
